

Short biography – Dejan Angelov (theater director)

Born in Strumica, the Republic of Macedonia in 1991 where he studied School for Detectives and Security. After graduating he decides to follow his lifelong passion for art and theatre and applies at the National Academy for Theatre and Film Arts "Krastyo Sarafov" in Sofia Bulgaria. Four years later and two Erasmus internships abroad (Zagreb and Vilnius), he earns a bachelor's degree in Theatre Directing.

He has directed "Ivanov" by Anton Chekhov in Sofia - Bulgaria, "The Meek One" by Fyodor Dostoyevsky, "Cain" by Lord Byron, and "Victoria" by Yordan Slaveykov in his hometown. His work "The meek one" by Fyodor Dostoevsky has been awarded at the international festival for Monodrama "Albamono" in Korça, Albania. Also, he took the prize: "The best of the best" in the category director of drama and puppet theatre, 2018, Sofia NATFA. The next year 2019 he won the competition organized by NATFA "Krstyo Sarafov" called "Young director" and had the opportunity to stage "Three Sisters" by Chekov in the academy school theatre.