

The piece is a movement piece entitled LONGING that Cadrick Msongelwa created during his study in USA, with the focus on living and creating work in the midst of a pandemic. He created this piece to see how the work he does manifests under tough and uncertain times.